Juniors

Looking back on the last three years, my senior year won't seem as special because I feel I have been a senior since I have arrived. My time here has flown by after attending many campus events, from Spring Formal to the ACME singers live concert at Mac. It's not the friendships made with peers, teachers, and assorted staff members. But what the administrators have given us. While thumbing through my old yearbooks, the memories of good times, bad times, and friends long gone, come flooding back to me and a tear wells in the corner of my eye, but its a salty tear but some how it quenches my thirst for camaraderie and knowledge. As juniors we have overcome numerous obstacles such as Major Essays, meal books, the loss of Tom Atkins, and the increase of the beer tax. Is our generation doomed? Do we know all the answers? Do we have any questions? Even if we are doomed I feel MacMurray has sufficiently prepared us for the real world. Years from now, when I return to my alma mater, I can honestly say I was a part of the "MacMurray Experience." If I were a poet Balladeer I would sing, "O MacMurray, Come MacMurray, My Dear Old Friend MacMurray."

Sophomores

After completing my freshman year, I didn't think much about being a sophomore. Until summer grew long and I found myself wanting to be back at Mac with all my new friends.

Though some friends have come and gone, their memory is still with me. Being a sophomore, I look back upon my freshman year and remember just about everything.

As sophomores, we are sort of veterans now. We know that Hardee's is only a high school hangout and Burger King is the late night spot to be. We all know how to do laundry and that the college's mascot is the Highlander (though some of us are still unsure what exactly a Highlander is?).

1991-92 brought with it Amanda Evans and Pete Tumminaro as our attendants at Homecoming.

I believe one of the most significant experiences once can have as a sophomore is Core. We now know just how hard it is to write a response paper at 2:00 a.m. and what a pain it is to finish typing your major essay at 10:55 a.m. when it is due at 11:00.

On to next year as Juniors, everyone will probably remember one special moment or maybe several from our sophomore year, but we will be looking on to 1994, when the real world begins.

Paradise On the Grid Iron Lines

Best Season in Eight Years

The MacMurray College football team finished the 1991 season with an overall record of 6-3-1. (The best record in the team's eight year history!) The team finished second in the highly competitive Illini-Badger Football Conference with a record of 5-1. Eleven of the players were named to the all-conference team and one player was named to the All-American team.

Receiving first team all-conference honors for the Highlander offense included senior Todd Hutchens at running back. Hutchens finished the season with 748 all-purpose yards. Junior wide receiver Brian Dickerson was also named to the first team as well as being selected as the outstanding receiver in the conference. Dickerson finished the season with 57 receptions for 820 yards. Senior offensive lineman Mark Middendorf was also chosen to the first team.

Senior quarterback Barry Creviston was selected as the most valuable offensive player for the Highlanders team.

On defense MAC had two unanimous first team selections junior Marlo Hollingshed and sophomore Eric Council. Hollingshed also received the outstanding linebacker in the conference award as well as team most valuable player. To top things off Hollingshed the second player in MacMurray College football history to be named All-American, Hollingshed was named to the second team Champion All-American team. Council finished the season with seven interceptions. Senior Defensive lineman Kevin Rehfuss was chosen as the team's most valuable defensive player.

In reflection of the 1991 season, Coach Hensley states, "This is only the starting point."

THEY MADE HIGHLANDER HISTORY

"California Here I Come . . ."

As the 1991 MacMurray College men's soccer team boarded the place at 7:00 am on the 15th of November, there was no doubt who the real champs were.

Those Fighting Highlanders were not looking for fun in the sun or even wishing for California girls, but for a little taste of fame and glory as they were leaving to participate in the second round of the NCAA national tournament.

Despite a disappointing third round loss to the University of California at San Diego, eventual national champs, the Highlanders finished a season that stole the hearts and minds of the fans and will definitely be one to remember. These outstanding soccer players did, in our eyes, just what they set out to do, bring us fame and glory as they were crowned champion of the South Central Region of NCAA Division III Soccer. For the second season the team was chosen to participate in the NCAA national tournament, and this season made it to the quarterfinals of the national championship held in San Diego, CA.

The team began the season with a pre-season NCAA ranking of 16th. The Highlanders moved up quickly in the rankings staying in the top ten through October 14th. The high point came with a ranking of 4th in the October 7th rankings.

The Fighting Highlanders finished the regular season with a 17-2 overall record, a 6-1 St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference record, and an NCAA ranking of 19th. The well-supported team won the first 12 regular season with a 16-2 record, breaking last year's school record of 15 wins in one season. The big wins included a 1-0 win over Washington University and a 2-1 win over Illinois College to once again keep the Mayor's Cup trophy in its home.

The two unfortunate losses suffered by the Highlanders were a 0-3 loss to Fontbonne and a 1-2 loss to the University of Scranton.

This year was a year to remember in Highlander history as the 1991 squad broke the record.

They broke 10 team or individual records throughout the season, as well as finishing with the best record of 21-4-0 in the school's history.

Pedro Rodriquez set the record for most goals scored in one game by a single player with five goals vs. Webster University in October 26. The record for the most team shutouts in one season was also broken. The Highlanders blanketed their opponents 18 times during the season. This also broke the record for the most shutouts by a goalkeeper in one season. Our senior "goalie god" broke the school record by recording shutouts in 13 of the Highlanders' 18 games. In the 18 games Joel Wallace had 100 saves and only allowed eight goals. Wallace also broke the record for career shutouts, ending his career at Mac with 40, including a record-breaking seven shutouts in a row.

The '91 Highlanders also recorded the college's best single season record, most wins in one season, most goals scored in one season (70) and, finally, most team assists in one season (43).

Women Complete Historic Season

First Year in the NCAA

Coached by Marc Ziegler, the women's soccer team finished the 1991 season with an overall record of 0-16. The team began the season with a victory in a scrimmage game against Illinois College, In spite of their regular season record, the ladies remained optimistic. They practiced hard and played to the best of their ability. Experience was a key factor that was missing from the 1991 team. (Almost ¾ of the team were freshmen and sophomores.) With continuous hard work and supreme effort, the upcoming years will include improvement and victory for Mac's women's soccer team.

Rutledge was built by the MacMurray family in 1937. It was named after a sweetheart of Abraham Lincoln. Rutledge is known as the "Quiet Dorm" for many reasons. First, the quiet hours start an hour earlier than all other Dorms on campus. Along with the other Dorms we have 24 hour courtesy hours that are more enforced than the other Dorms. Even though Rutledge is known as the "Quiet Dorm" its not always quiet. "If you have to ask, you haven't been there" . . . Rutledge 2nd.

Homecoming 1991: OPERATION MAC STORM

A fierce Friday evening thunderstorm dampened, but didn't really detract from festivities as the MacMurray community celebrated "Operation Mac Storm" the college's 1991 Homecoming, Oct. 4-6. Saturday's Homecoming activities opened with campus tours at 9:00 am. The sun came out just in time for the start of the eighth annual Homecoming parade through downtown Jacksonville. It opened with a fly-over by Illinois Air National Guard jets. Army National Guard utility trucks, Humvees, carried college President and Mrs. Mitchell, 91' Homecoming Queen Julia Harmon, King Mark Perry and members of their court. Saturday sports started with the outstanding Highlanders soccer team whipping Principia 4-0 to raise the Highlanders record of 12-0 on the season. Mac's football team made it a perfect sports afternoon as they defeated Concordia of Wisconsin 13-11 and ran their grid record of 2-2-1.

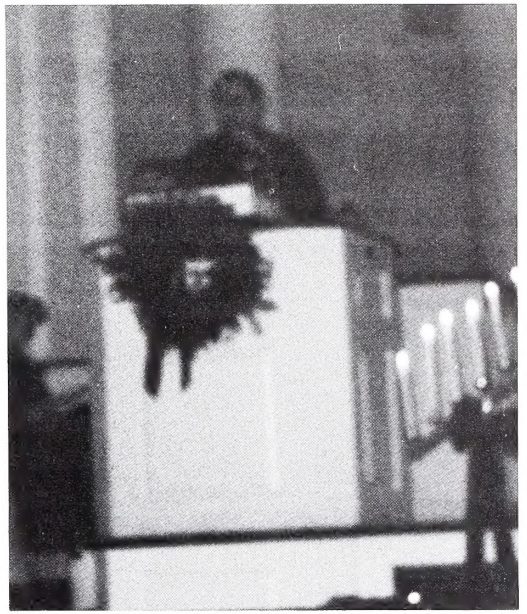
"Christmas Dreams"

Campus community gathers for Christmas celebration

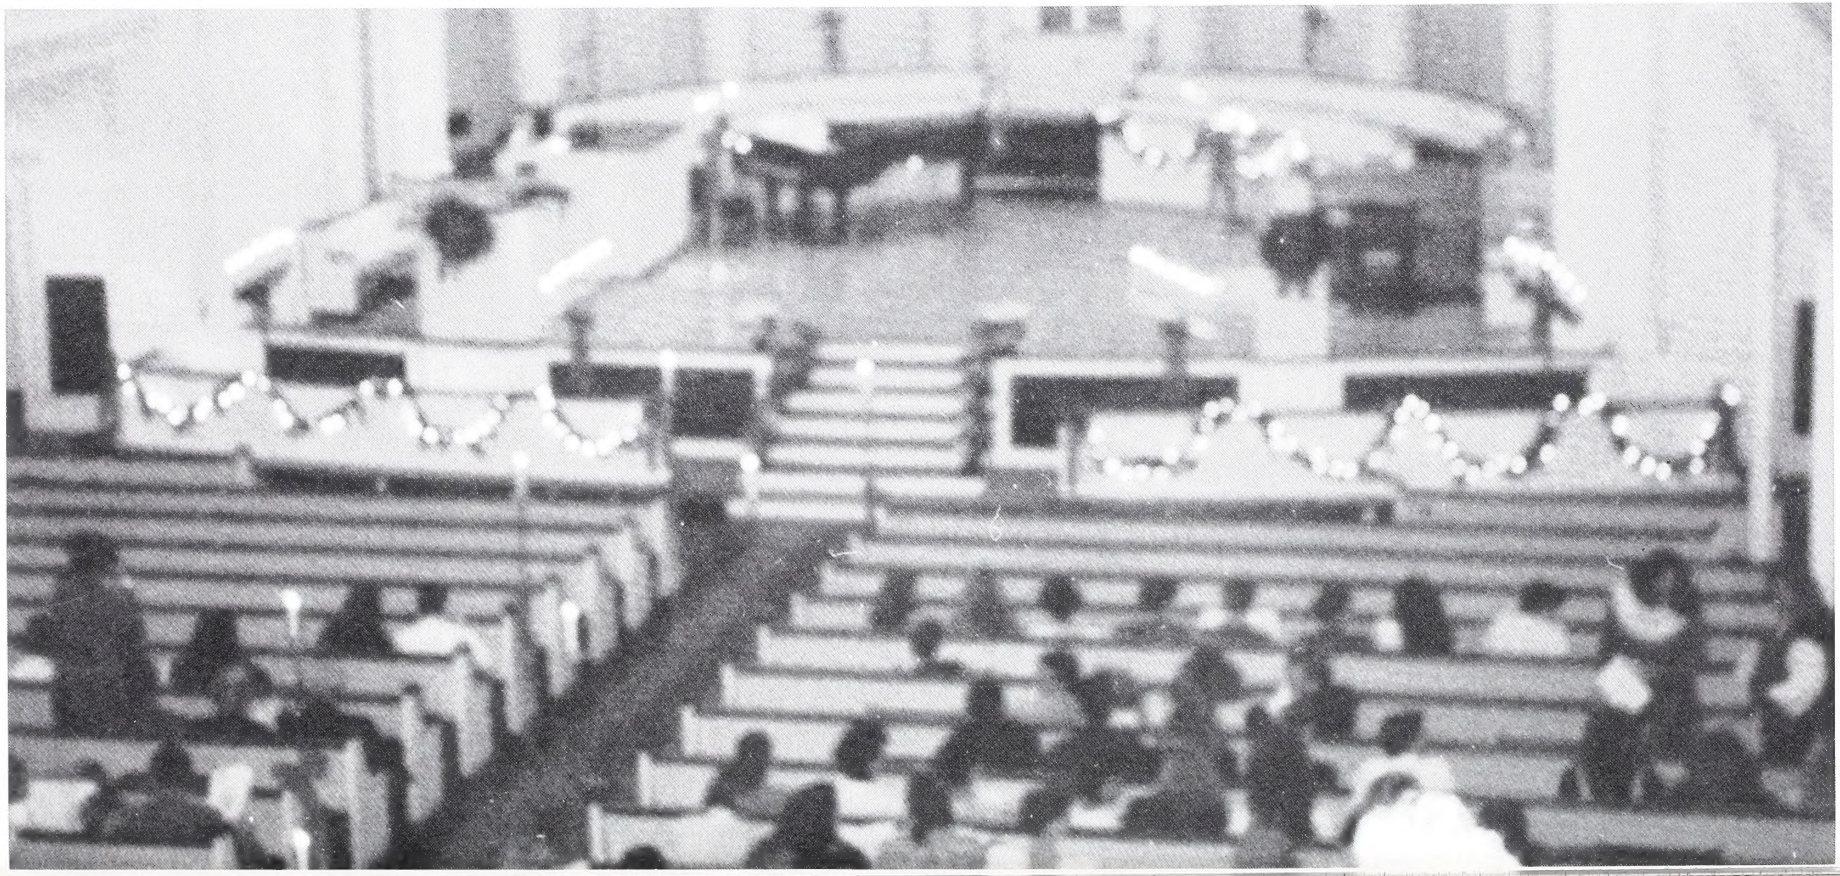


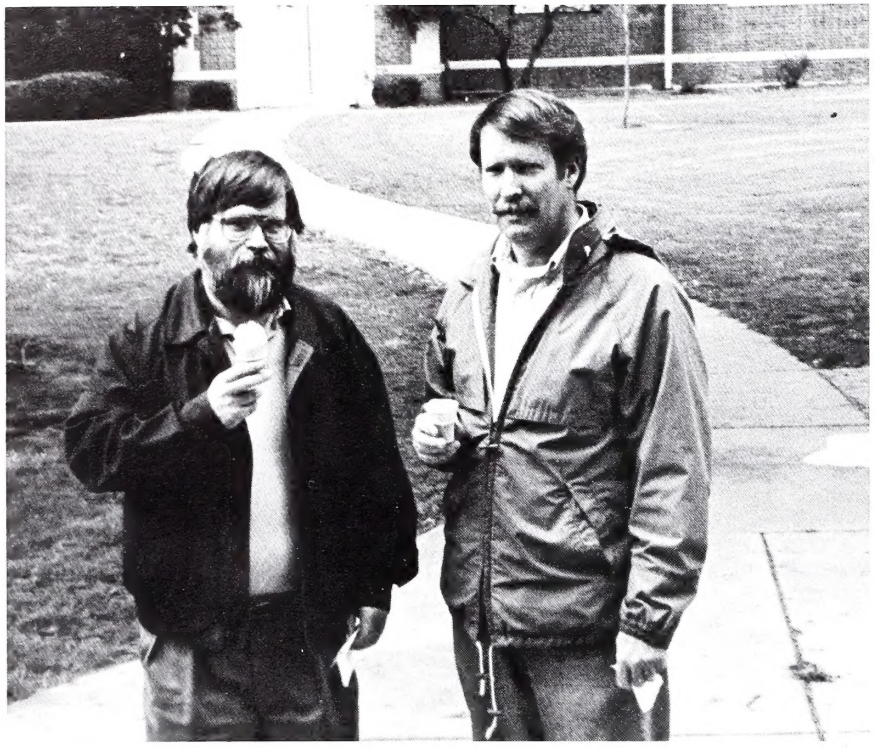
The vespers service, a pre-Christmas tradition was held on Sunday, December 7. The theme for the service this year was "Christmas Dreams". The service began at 4:30 pm at the chapel.

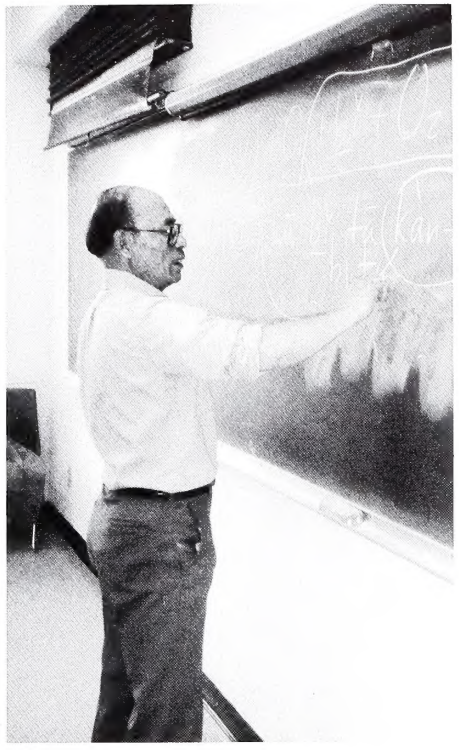
Mr. Jonothan Dixon, the college chaplain, conducted the service. The service included Christmas carols, scripture readings, special choral music and a short message by the chaplain.

The candlelight vespers service started with Christine Wallace playing "Fantaisie in C" on the organ. It then ended with a candle-lighting ceremony.

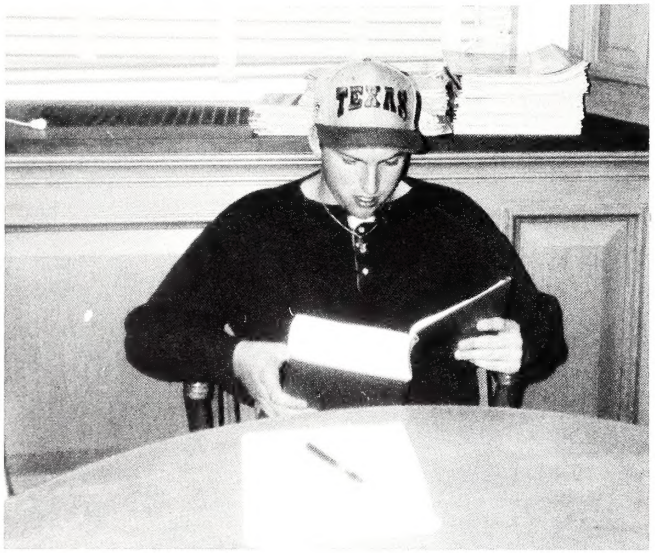
After the service, dinner was served at the dining hall. At the dinner, a whole roast turkey was served at each table. The meal also included a relish tray, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, mixed vegetables, rolls, beverages and dessert. A meal fit for a king!



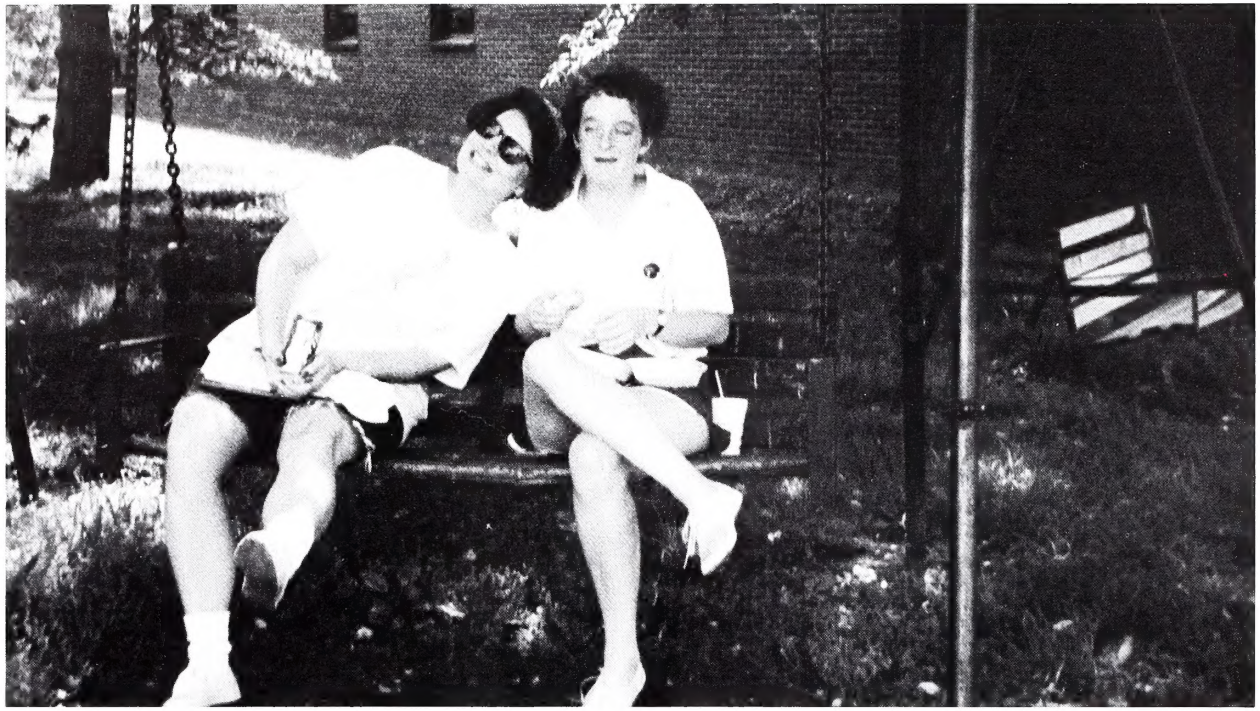


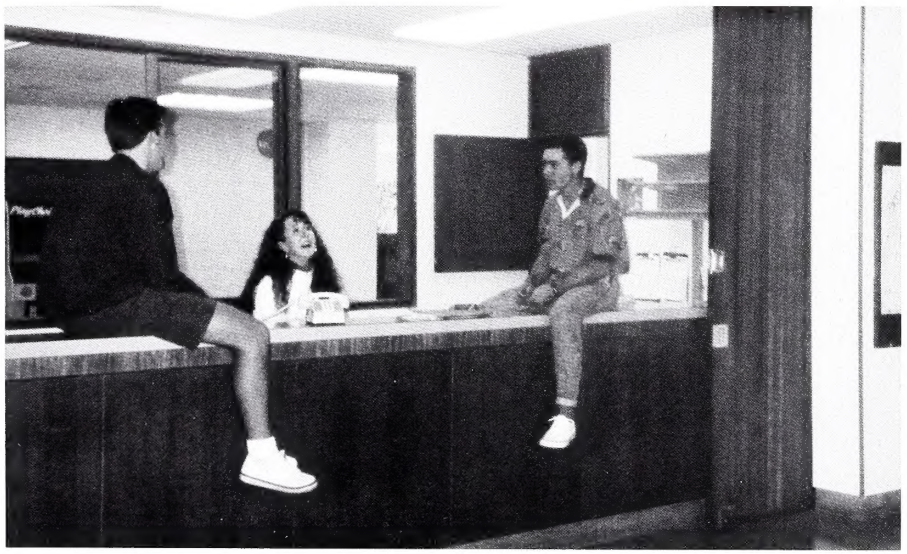


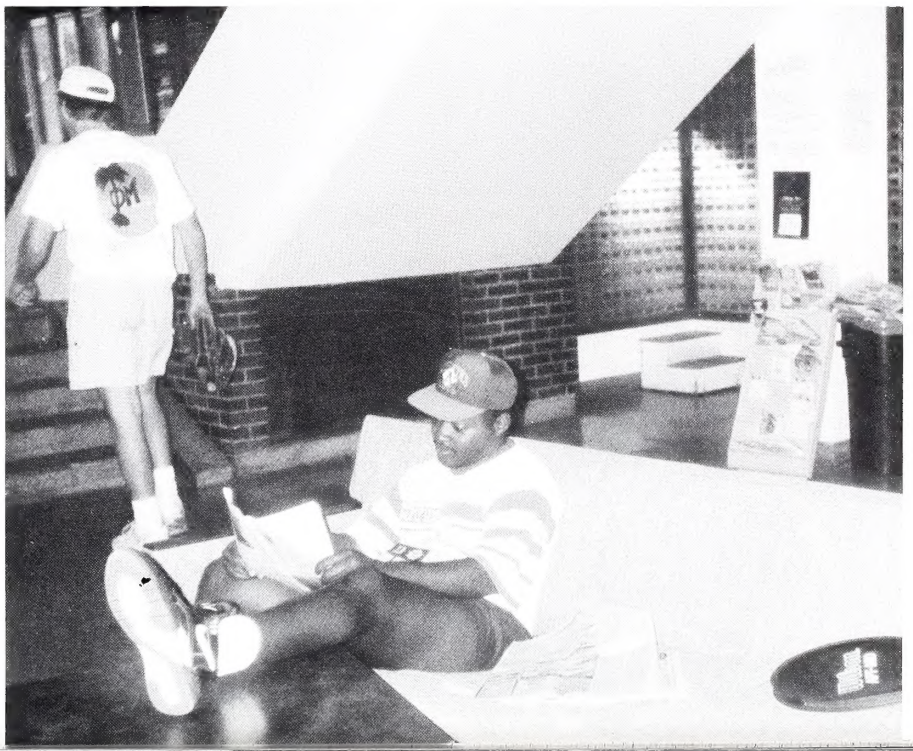
No matter where the students and faculty are found on campus, they are always willing to answer questions. Classes are small and the teachers have time to help those in need individually.



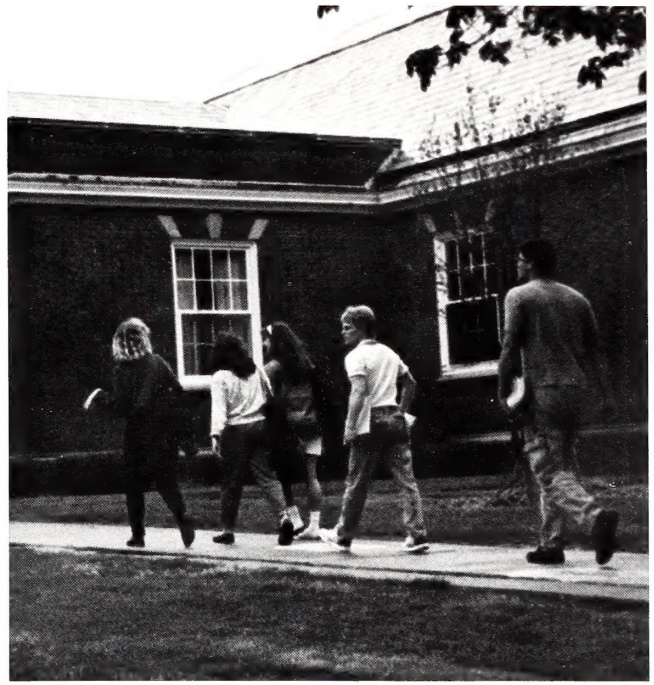
Students can be found working on an assignment in various places. Some choose the library while others prefer the cafeteria.







In between classes, the campus center is always filled with students. The bookstore is located inside giving students an opportunity to buy that special gift. Other students just relax with their friends or check their mailboxes.



There are many ways to take a break from classes. Some enjoy showing their support at sporting events, walking to the dining hall for a snack, talking on the phone or chatting on the swings.

CAMPUS ACTIVITY BOARD

CAB-MacMurray's Campus Activities Board plans activities for the student body. One of the main activities CAB plans for the year is Homecoming. Voting and elections for the King, Queen, and attendants, the Bonfire, the dance and Center Stage-a no talent show. All of the above Homecoming activities are sponsored and set by CAB. The Bonfire was rained out this year. A dance was held after many complications, at the Blackhawk Inn from 5 to 7.

Black Hat Cabarete and spring Formal is also sponsored by CAB. Acts such as Regency-an acapella group, ACME Vocals and Dr. Mort Berkowitz came and performed at MacMurray. Activities are planned for Honor Scholarship Competition weekends to entertain perspectives. CAB executives go to NACA, a conference to learn publicity stunts and get a chance to bid for performers for the next year.

Spring Formal is always a big event. 1990's spring formal was held at the Holiday Inn.

MacMurray Student Association

Mac Murray Student Association is the student government at Mac. MSA is composed of student representatives from campus organizations, resident halls, commuter representatives and an elected executive board. This year's MSA executive board is Cheryl Voss, president; Tesesa Jones, vice-president; Megan Murphy, secretary; Brad Atchison, treasurer; and Sue Walker, vice-president protem. MSA has worked on projects like recycling aluminum cans in resident halls without such programs. Along with the Campus Activity Board they pushed for the Administrative Staff to allow this year's Homecoming Dance to happen. Reorganizing and updating the charters for each organization has been another project for this year's MSA. MSA is also working on changing the alcohol policy at off-campus college events so that alcohol will be served to those 21 and older at off-campus college activities. The MSA has held J-Board elections for Freshman, Sophomore, and Senior representatives. A new addition this year is the revival of the President's Advisory Council which allows two student representatives, this year Frank Veer and Kristin Moore, to meet with President Mitchell regularly to discuss students needs and interests. As the year continues on MSA plans to concentrate on library needs and further improvements in making campus handicapped-accessible.

The Association of Student Social Workers

The Association of Student Social Workers, an organization for students interested in the field of social work, was sponsored by the Social Work department. The group was started in 1978 by Dr. Russ Geiger, and named the Sociology Club. However, the club only survived a year, but later was revived by Dean Collinwood and Susan Rentle as a club for both sociology and social work majors. Since then the group renamed themselves as the Association of Student Social Workers. This year the group is still working hard and has ten members.

Student Alumni Association

Student Alumni (SAA) is an organization that is dedicated to establishing and maintaining an interactive relationship between current students and MacMurray Alums. SAA has been active in Homecoming events, Penny Carnival, and plays a major role in the Annual Phonathon. The group also plans and organizes Senior Week. During Operation Desert Storm, SAA was able to acquire a fig tree which was decorated with yellow ribbons and donated to the college as a sign of support for troops. This tree is located in the Campus Center outside Student Life. The group also sponsors Balloon-a-grams during finals. These balloon messages are a great way for students to wish each other good luck on finals, Graduation, or Happy Holidays. SAA plans to sponsor an Alumni Pen Pal program in which current students can have correspondence with MacMurray Alums. Also, they plan to invite Alums to lunches on selected days. This will be a great opportunity to meet and converse with alumni. SAA is a closely knit group of students dedicated to creating a better mental and social atmosphere for MacMurray.

Student Nurses Association

SNA, Student Nurses Association, is a small low key organization which is part of the national level of Student Nurses. SNA is involved in both campus and community activities. The organization participated both in MSA and Homecoming activities by running a booth and building the first prize float in the 1991 Homecoming Parade. The organization was also an active participant in Special Olympic events and in helping to promote Health Care on campus and in the community.

Each year MacMurray's Student Orientation Staff (SOS) meets in the spring to train for the upcoming Orientation program the beginning of the following school year. These training sessions are used to provide new members with an idea of what a SOS member is required to know to help the incoming students with any questions they may have. They are also used as a bonding experience for the entire group and a time to organize for the activities during the Fall Orientation Program. The 1991 staff was an excellent team. With hard work and dedication they helped move students in, answered any questions, held many events - the Watermelon Feast, the Animal House Dance, the Welcome Back to Mac Party, held informational small group meetings where people could meet each other, and best of all, once the Orientation was over SOS provided the new students with a familiar face that they could talk to! We all had fun and hope to see more people wanting to get involved with the program!

This year's Daily Other Staff consists of the Editor-in-chief, Sue Walker; Managing Editor, Bob Ryan; Assistant Manager, Cheryl Myers; World News, Shelby Saville; and Advertising, Brian Nelson. The staff writers include Ricky Bragg, Christina Brant, Laura Linn, Brian Pinkelton, Jimmy Smith, Lonnie Brewer, Eric Council, Kim Devon, Paul Fairbanks, Red Hudgins, Steve Suhre, and Kim Trott. Typesetters are Nikki Cathorall and Tracy Pitts. Circulators include Beth Price and Shelby Saville. Dr. Allan Metcalf is this year's advisor and Dr. Phillip Decker is the Ombudsman. This year the Daily Other Staff decided to distribute the newsppaer exclusively to those students who chose to receive it. This new idea helped out spending so that the money could be used in other areas. This year also marked the Daily Other's 15th anniversary as a daily newspaper.

HOUSE COUNCIL

The House Council is made up of volunteers from the dorms. A president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and program director are then elected from each group. So, each dorm has its own House Council, which is responsible for the beautification of that particular dorm. Normally, each House Council meets twice per month to discuss fundraisers, activities and desired dorm improvements. Several dorms organize fundraisers such as recycling pop cans and/or running a food booth during the Homecoming weekend. The money that is raised is used to buy furniture, paint and flowers for dorm beautification or to make dorm repairs and improvements. In addition, the House Councils plan such activities as dorm birthday parties, Christmas parties, clean-up and Little Sisters weekend (Rutledge). Each House Council is also responsible for distributing dorm T-shirts and/or sweatshirts. The House Councils are especially busy during Homecoming, when they decorate the dorms and build floats for the parade according to the Homecoming theme. Finally, House Council encourages everyone to get involved and share their ideas with the group.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

"Be it known: that the time is nigh to bring in the joy and cheer of the Yuletide season. All the regal pageantry and ceremonial pomp of Merrie Olde England will be spendiferously brought to life at the MacMurray Madrigal Dinner."

Twenty-five years ago MacMurray celebrated its first Madrigal Dinner. Since that time, thousands of students, faculty and community members have enjoyed the fanfares of the trumpeters, the Hoisting of a toast of Wassail, the procession of the Liter Bearers with the Boar's head and Desert Flambe and the Concert by the Madrigal Singers. The Madrigal singers have had only two musical directors in their twenty-five year history, Dr. Charles Fisher from 1967-76 and Dr. Richard Hanson from 1977 to the present.

MacMurray Band

This year was an exciting year for the MAC band. Dr. Hanson became the new director. There were eight MacMurray students who were members first semester. This didn't stop the determined band members. Their first event was playing during the Homecoming Parade. They also extended an invitation to the community to gain more members. This community band met on Mon. evenings to practice. They then performed for two concerts. The MacMurray students are: Teresa Crick, Karen Kuriger, Angie Klimut, Sarah Eadie, Keren Rebholz, Rocky Mella, Rich Ott, and Christine Wallace.

The MacMurray Choir had an active exciting year. The fall semester we performed in Virden and Peoria. In Peoria we performed at Peoria Richwoods and also Peoria Central High Schools. In the fall we also sang the Winchester Baptist Church. In Jacksonville we used our talents at First Christian Church. The end of fall semester was marked by our singing at Christmas vespers and at the Madrigal Dinners.

The second semester was started off by our performance at the First United Methodist Church in Good Hope. Our largest event was our home concert in Annie Merner Chapel. We also demonstrated our abilities at the teacher appreciation dinners in McClelland Dining Hall. The end of the 1991-92 came with our singing at graduation.

THE TARTAN

Through Blood, Sweat and Tears, it's happened again — A YEAR-BOOK! I thought, as editor, I'd surprise you all with a little note of thanks!

We started the year with twenty-five staff members and an ever present Herff-man. As the months went on, our members dwindled to ten and on most days five! As our members decreased, so did the visits from the Herff-man! But — we did it! You were all so dedicated and I thank you for your own blood, sweat and tears which you gave to make this book possible! Congratulations! This is your book. Enjoy!

Your Editor,
Carla

YEARBOOK STAFF

BASIC/NEWMAN CLUB

THE NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is a religious organization affiliated with Our Saviour's Catholic Church. The group got off to a slow start this year, but by end of the year the group bounded back full steam ahead. The Newman Club meets once a week to discuss religious matters that are a concern to everyone. Even though the organization is affiliated with the Catholic Church all denominations are welcome. The group ended the year by participating and playing a part in a Sunday Mass involving both MacMurray and Illinois College students, and ended the year on a fun note by going bowling. The group already has plans in progress for next year. The group plans to participate in more community activities, to help with the youth group, and to get more I.C. students involved.

BASIC

BASIC, or Brothers and Sisters in Christ, is a non-denominational organization that promotes fun, fellowship, and bible Study in a warm, caring atmosphere. Besides their weekly Wednesday meetings at 9:30 p.m., BASIC attended a spring and fall conference with students from colleges and universities all over the state. Other activities included a joint ski trip with IC and Lincoln Avenue Baptist Church, a Christmas party, a bonfire, and a trip to Chi Chi's.

Members of BASIC: Angie Klimut, Rich Ratts (Director), Sheryl Miers, Rocky Mella, Kim Fuchsgruber, Carol Miers, Dana Snyder, Jamie Eshbaugh and Bob Blattner (State Director).

Dance Squad 1991-92 was a good year. They didn't dance as many times as they would have liked to, but when they did they really jammed! "Everybody dance now" was their first debut at the homecoming soccer and football games. Then they pulled through with "R-Ox-C-Kx in the USA" at the next football game, which was very cold! Thats Illinois weather for you - whoever heard of it being below freezing in October?! Their most memorable routine will be "Now that we got love . . . ". that was awesome thanks to Ayanna's choreographic work and dance squad determination! Dance Squad decided to try something new this year with uniforms. They wore T-shirts with jean shorts, their traditional sweater and skirt, and for something really flashy MC Hammer pants and black T-shirts. Dance Squad did a wonderful job of choreographing all of their own material this year. Why did they put so much time into dance? Because they LOVE to dance!

HOLY FOOLS

The Holy Fools had a busy year. The theme for this year's troupe was "With God All Things Are Possible." In August, they got right to work and wrote a service of skits, songs, and Bible passages. They were lucky enough to have the first "Head Fool" David Mouri and his wife Sharon (both MacMurray graduates) come back to lead a workshop teaching new fools and even some old fools more about clowning. The group visited several nursing homes throughout the year. They also performed the service they had written for many different congregations. They went to Methodist churches, Catholic churches, and even Presbyterian churches. These churches were in Jacksonville, Galesburg, Maquon, Manito, Normal, Decatur, Pana, Godfrey, and Roodhouse. The favorite place for the group to do the service was here at Annie Merner Chapel. The Holy Fools performed the service on campus twice, once at the beginning of the year, and once at the end of the year. The group had to say goodbye to two of their favorite fools as Sarah Eadie and Karen Rebholz graduated. All things considered, the group had a very successful year.

Religious Life Committee is busy throughout the year. RLC sponsors Bible studies. The Bible studies come from Campus Crusade, an international Christian organization that encourages religious activities. RLC also sponsors big name movies once a month. The entire campus is invited to this free activity that is held on Saturday evenings. RLC also helps sponsor several of the concerts that are held on campus. The Christmas Vespers is a main event for RLC. They are the people that plan, decorate, and sell tickets for this special worship service. Not only does RLC sponsor many activities on campus they also participated in the annual fundraisers on campus. Their fundraisers included selling popcorn at Homecoming. RLC is also concerned with our environment. They are collecting paper from Kathryn Hall to be recycled. RLC is also attends retreats in both the fall and the spring. These retreats are with other area colleges. During each retreat RLC is responsible for at least one devotion or service of some form. RLC's officers for the '91-92' school year are: President: Karen Rebholz '92, Vice President: Cheryl Carlton '94, Secretary: Michelle Weddle '94, and Treasurer: Brian Haggerty '93.

MORTAR BOARD

This has been a busy year for the twelve members of MacMurray's Cap and Gown chapter of National Mortar Board. An honor society for seniors, Mortar Board has been an active part of the MacMurray campus for nearly three decades, providing service, assistance, and programming wherever possible.

For Homecoming, Mortar Board participated in the parade, as well as selling carmel apples and apple cider. Later in October, they set up Charlie Brown's pumpkin patch for the CAB-sponsored Safe Halloween. In November, the group collected more than $300 in cash and meal books, in addition to several boxes of non-perishables, to donate to the Jacksonville Food Pantry. MB also sponsored a winter cartoon marathon for area children. Trips to Wal-Mart and the Morgan County Detention Center highlighted December, as MB members helped shop and wrap for the Marline's Toys for Tots program.

Spring was equally busy. the group celebrated National Mortar Board month with a bulletin board on display in the Campus Center throughout February. Bookmarks were once again distributed to congratulate those who made the Dean's List for fall semester. March brought elections and tapping, as well as a community event focusing on this year's nation-wide MB theme, literacy. In April, MB wrapped up another year of outstanding service with the induction of new members and the annual Pie Throw.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honor society, honors those who achieve high scholastic achievement during their freshman year in college. The chapter began their year by marching in the annual homecoming parade. The organization also sold "touch me" plants as their fall fundraiser in order to raise money for their annual scholarship. They also participated in the Special Olympics track meet held at IC. The chapter ended their year by inducting a very large group of freshmen into the society.
